

Requirements for the application for Full Professorship in Social, Cultural and Historical Anthropology at the Faculty of Humanities, Charles University

The procedure of appointing professors at Charles University is described in the Code of Procedure for the Granting of Associate Professorship and Full Professorship: <https://cuni.cz/UKEN-649.html>.

The required documents for the initiation of appointment proceedings and the procedures and recommended aspects of the evaluation of qualifications and competence for the purposes of these proceedings at Charles University are regulated by Rector's Directive No. 6/2025: https://cuni.cz/UKEN-714-version1-en\_or\_habilitace\_def\_navrh\_22\_final.pdf

Discipline-specific requirements of the Faculty of Humanities (FH CU):

- FH CU requires that the candidates have a minimum of 40 publications, out of which at least 15 are published by a foreign publisher. Publication activity in the field of the procedure must include at least 6 articles in journals maintained in the Web of Science database (Jimp), two of which in Q1-Q2 journals according to WoS, or 3 independent book monographs (B). Alternatively, the candidate can present 3 Jimp articles (1 of which in Q1-Q2) and 1 monograph. For each study published in Q1 or Q2 according to WoS or for a scientific monograph in a foreign language published in a major foreign publishing house, the total number of publications required by Charles University will be reduced by one.
- A minimum of 40 citations is required for the appointment procedure, of which at least 25 are foreign/international citations. Reviews can be included in the overview of citations, provided that they have been published in scholarly journals. The candidate must specify the methodology for citations search
- The candidate has been an investigator of at least two external scientific research projects; management of international projects is desirable
- An internship at a foreign research institute for a minimum of 6 months (or a maximum of 3 separate internships for a total of 6 months) is required for the appointment procedure. The internship may be replaced by joint publications with a foreign co-author, the candidate must submit 5 such publications.
